THE PRESIDENT'S PREVIEW

Sunday 19 May at the camellia garden of Chris and Helen Chapman. 49 Ridgehaven Road, Silverdale. Benching 10.30-11.00am. Judging at 11.15am.

Chris Chapman has competed very successfully at our annual camellia show for many years. He knows the best ways to grow, prune, feed, water and prepare camellias for shows. The visit to this garden will include the May bloom competition and a garden tour with lots of tips from Chris. I've missed seeing this garden previously so I'm really pleased to have the opportunity this Sunday 19th May. If you like camellias, try to be there too. Tea and coffee will be available but bring your own lunch.

Garden Square Hall April meeting, presenter Bryce Hillig

Our first meeting in the Garden Square Hall, on the adjacent property at the back of Gordon Baptist Church, was in April. Everyone seemed relaxed and comfortable in the new venue. We had a quiz with a few members behaving like slightly undisciplined super keen kids!

Chris who was judging the bloom competition with Marion Moyes, provided the answer to the "leaves" question. A bloom with more than two leaves will be disqualified but a bloom with two leaves will be judged more highly than a bloom with one or no leaves.

Guest presenter, Bryce Hillig discussed his experiences while working for a few months last year at Monet's garden in Giverny, France. The annual turnover of plants is remarkable. Thousands of plants are grown from seed every year on a nearby property. The extent and intensity of the gardening methods were surprising. Bryce was able to show us what tourists never see and never know.

Bruce Walker won the raffle prize Sasanqua 'Early Pearlie' generously donated by Camellia Grove: 8 Cattai Ridge Road Glenorie.

CARING FOR YOUR CAMELLIAS IN MAY & JUNE - PETER LEVICK

MAY

The sasanquas will usually finish blooming during this month, and pruning where required can commence for those bushes with no unopened buds. After flowering, sasanqua hedges can be pruned at this time. Each bush should be allowed to present its own growth characteristic habit even if some of the heights of some plants need to be reduced.

JUNE

The flowering season of the japonicas will be at its peak during this month. Spent blooms should be allowed to remain on the beds below the bushes and this a form of natural mulching and is of course what happens in nature. In Australia we are fortunate that camellia flower blight is not present: in those areas of the world where the disease is present, allowing spent blooms to lie on the ground encourages the spread of the disease. Some camellias do not fully drop spent blooms and, if labor is available, smaller plants in prominent positions should be cleared manually. If the weather has been dry adequate soil moisture will help ensure quality blooms.
